Most of our Ballet arts commitment involves Saturdays, but as the show gets closer Fridays and Sundays are needed as well. So in planning consider these days also in your activity plans. The days shaded gray will not be scheduled.

1. Gather up all the activities you know of and ask school, church and parents to give you any dates they know.
2. Next to the date, fill-in the activity and any details or explanation, you know.
3. Include church trips, plays you plan to be in, family trips already planned, school activities that affect grades and tests. You may receive an excused absence for some. Or, maybe, not be scheduled to rehearse. There will never be excused absences for Birthday parties, games, overnights and alike. Try to work around these.)
4. The goal of this form is to let the directors schedule with as few absences as possible so we can learn and rehearse quicker without needing repeating the same choreography over and over.
(FRUSTRATING TO ALL OF US!)
